

Washington Handicap at Laurel Today---G. U. Meets Medicos

SUPERSTITION IS WINNER AGAIN

"Old Sup" Rewards Backers for Third Time at Laurel Park.

BIG HANDICAP TODAY

Surprising Takes the Feature of Card. Washington Stake Draws Good Horses.

By C. W. SWAN.

Laurel, Md., Oct. 17.—Old Superstition, long the favorite of Washington's betting public, romped home a winner at Laurel Park today, making his third victory in as many starts, and the odds were 5 to 1 against the old-timer.

"Old Sup" was backed by only a few of his old stand-bys, the wise ones playing Little Jupiter heavily. "Sup" was off in the lead and was never headed. The old-timer won under wraps, with Homecrest second and Little Jupiter third.

Another banner crowd witnessed the day's racing and cheered Old Superstition to the echo when he crossed the line a winner.

Dick Carman came to the front again when his good colt Surprising romped home a winner in the two-year-old handicap, the feature of the card. Surprising was off in the van, with Crossbush, the Belmont colt, leading. Crossbush could not keep up the pace, however, and Surprising forced to the front coming into the stretch. Addie M. was well liked in the ring, but Gainer beat the Meemery filly for the place.

Two Winners for Real.

N. K. Beal, the popular New Yorker, took two winners past the judges' stand. His El Ora ran away with the fourth event, at a mile and a sixteenth, with Yellow Eyes second, and Sepulveda third, while in the last race, a six-furlong dash, his Brynnaia also was an easy winner. Rene was second, while in the final event, with Capt. Jinks getting third money.

Speardhead proved the best in the opening dash, beating Mouthout and Fathom with ease to the wire. Redpath, tipped as a good thing, won the fifth race by a length from Colors, with Polly H. third.

Jockey Corey, who had the mount on Sepulveda, in the fourth race, was set down for the meeting for rough riding. His good races are carried for tomorrow, including the Washington Handicap, at a mile and an eighth. All Gold is booked to start against Ten Point, (Donald McDonald, Lochiel, Huerfano, Panama, and several other good ones.

The second race, a mile and a sixteenth, was won by a length from Colors, with Polly H. third.
